1. On 29 August 1952, the last motor vehicles with billeting equipment left the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik, Luckenwalde, Industriestrasse, and went to Stalag I west of Luckenwalde. Only light traffic was noticed in the former Maschinenfabrik during the period from 30 August to 4 September. On 4 September, 30 men with red-bordered black epaulets and rifles, marched from the installation to the adjoining woods. Truck brought up the rear. Other motor vehicles seen in traffic from and to the quarters after 30 August

2. After 1 September, about 40 trucks including 10 to 12 radio cars and several M-13 rocket launchers were seen in Stalag I. They left from the camp and proceed in the direction of the Jueterbog troop training grounds. No training activity was noticed. Motor vehicles seen in the billeting area and

3. On 3 September, five soldiers engaged in maintenance duty on an M-13 rocket launcher in Stalag II, west of Stalag I. Four trucks stood in front of the ammunition depot north of Stalag II on 29 August, and 3 trucks on 4 September.

4. During the period from 27 August to 2 September 1952, four signal stations, each with a truck with radio-car trailer and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were in operation in Stalag I, south of the Luckenwalde-Frankenfelde and Luckenwalde-Frankenforde road fork. The signal stations were set up about 20 meters from each other. During the same period, 2 groups consisting of 20 to 30 soldiers each were daily seen rifle firing with live ammunition and hand-grenade throwing. No other training activity was noticed. On 2 September, rocket launchers and trucks entered Stalag II. *

* Comment. The information appears to confirm the assumption that the 91st Gds RL Regt of the Third Gds Decz Army moved from the Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik to Stalag I and, presumably, of which can be carried as being assigned to this rocket launcher regiment. [redacted] of the Third Gds Mecz Army, First Gds Mecz Army and Fourth Gds Mecz Army probably belong to signal vehicles which have arrived since the end of August, with some of them having apparently been shipped away again after a few days. [redacted] . It is not known whether these vehicles arrived there to participate in a signal exercise or for repair purposes. The GOFG signal repair shop is located there.
